

An illustration of a woman with dark skin and short hair, wearing a pink tank top and blue pants, standing and ironing a white cloth on an ironing board. She has a weary expression. Surrounding her are various white line-art icons representing household chores: a calculator, a carrot, a roll of paper towels, a bowl of spaghetti, a baby onesie, a small bowl, a 'To Do' list, a basket of laundry, and a crawling baby. A thought bubble trail leads from the baby to the woman's head. A red banner with white text is superimposed over the top half of the image.
